SOUTH GOA SIGHTSEEING

OVERNIGHT : GOA

Today after breakfast get away on a sightseeing tour of South Goa at around 08:30 AM This tour includes the famous Bom Jesus of Basilica Church Old Goa, St Cathedral Church, Mangeshi temple, Shantadurga Temple, Dona Paula jetty and Miramar beach.

MIRAMAR BEACH: Situated at the distance of 3 km from the Panaji, a lovely and enchanting golden beach of soft sand covered with palm trees facing the blue Arabian Sea is the Miramar beach. This beach was originally popular as the 'Gasper Dias Beach' and it is the point where Mandovi River merges with the Arabian Sea. It's a romantic gateway for adventure freaks, beach lovers and honeymoon couples. The 2 km long coast vaunts of splendid, soft silvery sand bed that glitter in the moonlight and offer colourful view of the Aguanda fort.

DONA PAULA : With full of romance in the air, the Dona Paula beach is quite bustling with plenty of activities round the year. Located 7 kms away from the Panaji, this beach has become one of the most happening beaches of the Goa. It is snuggled on the southern part of the rocky headland where the Mandovi and the Zuari rivers meet the Arabian Sea. The beach is very popular as lovers paradise because of a myth attached to this place. As per the legend, Viceroy's daughter Dona Paula de Menezes jumped off the cliff after facing objections from her family due to her love affair with a son of a fisherman. So, the beach is popular by the name of Dona Paula BOM JESUS OF BASILICA (Old Goa Churhes), perhaps Goa's most famous church and among the most revered by Christians worldwide, is partially in ruins but still a model of simplicity and elegance, and a fine example of Jesuit architecture. This is the only church in Old Goa, which is not plastered on the outside, the lime plaster having been stripped off by a zealous Portuguese conservationist in 1950.

The foundation stone of this remarkably large church was laid on 24 November 1594 and the church was consecrated by Fr. Alexia de Menezes, the Archbishop of Goa and Primate of India consecrated it when it was completed on 15 May 1605. In 1946 it was raised to the status of a minor Basilica.

ST. CATHEDRAL CHURCH Dedicated to the Catherine of Alexandria, Se Cathedral is one of the ancient structures in Goa, which is classically Portuguese brick by brick. The historic church is located in the old part of the state, right on the banks of the Mandovi river. Representing the royal and imperial atmosphere of the bygone Portuguese era, Se Cathedral is an important attraction in Goa. Spread across a vast expanse, it is one of the largest churches in India

MANGUESHI TEMPLE : The Mangueshi temple or the Manguesh Devasthan is perhaps the most famous of all Goan temples. In ancient times the temple was located at Kushasthali (presently known as Cortalim). During the Portuguese Inquisition, a number of Hindu temples were destroyed in Goa. To avoid a similar fate, the devotees of God Manguesh removed the linga (symbol of Lord Shiva) from the original temple and transferred it in the middle of the night to the present location at Priol which was under the control of Adil Shah.

Optional

Lunch at Spice Plantation : Escape the crowds and noise of the beaches for a few hours and visit a spice plantation located in Ponda, a city in southern Goa. Discover tropical plants laden with fruits, herbs, and spices on a guided walk of the plantation before enjoying a homely meal. Try authentic Goan cuisine and taste the local drink, Feni, made from cashews.

Then, set off on a short guided walk around a section of the plantation. Feel free to touch, smell, and taste the different fruits and trees. Depending on the season, you can observe cinnamon, black and green cardamom, mace, piri-piri chilies, coconuts, green pepper, and allspice. Learn more about the uses and health benefits of each spice with the plantation's staff, including tips on how you can incorporate them for your own well-being.

Mandovi River Cruise

At a distance 1 km from Panaji Kadamba Bus Terminus, River Cruise is a memorable and must experience activity in Panaji. It is one of the top Goa places to visit. The river cruises start from Santa Monica Boat Jetty and Panaji Jetty on Mandovi river in Panaji town on Old Panaji Road. River cruise is one of the top things to do in Goa.

The river cruise, especially the evening sunset cruise is a beautiful experience. Most of the cruise trips last for one hour with a ride across the Mandovi River till the Miramar Beach point. The cruise trips are usually accompanied with Goan cultural activities like Music, Dance, etc. The activities also include tourists joining the dance at end of the program.

Visitors can also view Adil Shah Palace from the river, which is the first palace built in Goa by Bijapur Sultan Adil Shah. It was later occupied by Portuguese and converted into a palace.

DAY 3 NORTH GOA SIGHTSEEING OVERNIGHT : GOA

Today after breakfast get away on a sightseeing tour of North Goa at around 08:30 AM This tour includes Fort Aguada, Sinquerim Beach, Calangute Beach, Baga Beach, Anjuna, Vagator Beach, Chapora Fort,

Fort Aguada : Standing on the crumbling ramparts of what was once the most formidable and impregnable of the Portuguese forts in India, one looks out at a panoramic ocean vista, witnessing the confluence of the Mandovi River and Arabian Sea, over which the fort has kept watch for more than four hundred years.

This is so majestic a sight that it is easy to picture a Portuguese galleon or carrack on the horizon, on the last leg of its arduous voyage from far off Portugal around the Cape of Good Hope, finally able to make safe harbour and replenish its supplies.

Sinquerim Beach: Sinquerim Beach is located just beside Aguada Fort, a major tourist attraction in Goa with immense historical significance. So, there's no reason why you should visit the latter & miss out on the former. This beach stretches all the way north to Baga, making it great for casual walking, enjoying the spectacular sunset views & capturing them in your camera. Its beauty is enhanced several times over during the sunset, and taking a walk on the beach then is an altogether different experience.

Calangute Beach: Dubbed the Queen of Beaches, Calangute Beach is unarguably one of the most popular beaches in Goa. It is also the busiest beach in North Goa with restaurants, shacks, and clubs fringing it. Calangute is also quite popular amongst adventurers as it has a number of watersports available like parasailing, water surfing, banana ride and jet-skiing. The nightlife of Calangute Beach is the best with crazy parties and live music for the nightlife lover.

Baga Beach : One of the most happening beaches in Goa, Baga Beach is where you will find water sports, fine dining restaurants, bars, and clubs. Situated in North Goa, Baga Beach is bordered by Calangute and Anjuna Beaches. Watersports are the major attraction of Baga Beach. Parasailing, wakeboarding, windsurfing, kite surfing, jet skiing are some of the top watersports activities to enjoy in Baga Beach. One can also go for dolphin spotting tours and island trips from the beach.

Anjuna Beach : Amongst the most popular beaches in Goa, Anjuna Beach has a rich past of hippie culture. However, this beach that stretches almost 2 km is also popular amongst families and water sports lovers. At night, Anjuna Beach becomes one of the best hubs in Goa for nightlife. At Anjuna Beach, there is one of the most popular nightclubs in Goa, Paradiso. There are a number of great eateries like Curlies that's perfect as a daytime hangout. Apart from its scenic beach stretch, Anjuna is also known for its Wednesday Flea Market.

Vagator Beach: At Vagator Beach, a curved stretch of sand overlooked by the Chapora Fort, you will find a lot of activities occurring simultaneously. Decent sized bars serve food & drinks, a cricket game in progress & vendors selling refreshing coconut water. The beach is dotted with a hillock on one side & headland on the other.

Located in north Goa, it is situated at the end of the Sinquerim, Candolim, Calangute, Baga & Anjuna stretch, and is separated from Morjim by the Chapora River. The beach itself is divided into two parts, Big Vagator & Little Vagator.

Chapora Fort is famously called Dil Chahta Hai Fort. You can relive those moments by visiting it yourself. This fort overlooks the Chapora river and is only 700 meters away from Vagator Beach. So, whenever you are nearby, try and manage your time to enjoy both of these tourist attractions. This fort earlier had rough patches that made it difficult to hike. However, now proper trails and roads are laid down for travellers like you. Vendors also stream alongside these carpeted roads, selling their offerings to satisfy your mid-day hunger for food, juices, and water.

DAY 4 DUSHSAGAR SIGHTSEEING OVERNIGHT : GOA

Today after breakfast get away on a sightseeing tour of Doodhsagar . The majestic Dudhsagar Waterfalls are situated on the luscious and evergreen trees of the Western Ghats in the Bhagwan Mahaveer Wildlife Sanctuary and Mollem National-Park in Sanguem Taluka. The Mandovi River finds its way through the Western Ghats and gushes down from a height of 1017 ft. from the steep side of the mountains and this is a breathtaking view for the tourists.

Dudhsagar is referred to as "sea of milk" owing to its milk-like colour. Gushing water from an almost 300m height is indeed a mesmerizing feel. It looks exactly like milk being poured from the top of mountain ranges. It is a known fact that Dudhsagar fall becomes more hypnotic during the monsoon and being the tourist season it is the safest access. Many trains pass through this scenic beauty, but not many halts at Dudhsagar station.

Evening back to Goa Hotel
