The Celuk village, based in Ubud Town, is popularly known as the Silver Village and is a prominent commercial hub for traditional crafts and arts in Bali. Celuk village is known far and wide for its immense dealings in gold and silver at reasonable costs and it is one of best places to see in Kuta. If you are a jewellery lover and wish to explore great 'art pieces' at cheap rates, Celuk village is the best option to opt for. On visiting the location, you can't stop yourself from getting amazed at the splendid array of jewellery designs, curated by local merchants out of gold and silver. Ranging from different types of souvenirs and jewellery, to medals and artistic symbols, you are entitled to find any desirable art piece in the market.

Batik Factory

Learn a completely new art form called Batik Making, which will enhance your creativity. Learn from the experts and master this traditional Balinese artwork for yourself. This project will teach you about the numerous processes for creating the art, as well as the various tools and colourful dyes that are used to create the perfect Batik Artwork. As a memento of this lesson, keep the Batik art that you created. Make lasting memories while participating in this activity.

Kintamani Viewing Point to see Mt. Batur

Coffee Plantation

Guwang / Sukawati Art Market

The Tegenungan Waterfall, located in Kemenuh Village on the Petanu River, is one of Bali's most popular tourist destinations. The waterfall cascading from a height of about 66 feet is a breathtaking sight to behold. Nestled amidst a lush tropical jungle, this hidden spot is sure to leave you speechless. A few steps down the concrete steps and the safety rail take you to the bottom of a waterfall. Along the way down, there are several viewpoints from where you can take in the scenery and scenic picture spots where you can snap some magnificent sceneries.
