

Mauritius

C'est un plaisir

Mauritius is an island country surrounded by the Indian Ocean on all sides, has an affluent and diverse ecosystem with dense and lush forests, white-sand beaches fringed with swaying palm-trees, volcanic mountains, tea plantations, waterfalls, islets and many other points of interest that lure countless holidaymakers here all year long. To compliment the luxuries of Mauritius, you should book a stay at some of the world-class accommodations like the numerous 5-star resorts and beachfront properties and take the trip up twofold.

To add to the beauty of Mauritius is also the maritime tropical climate with warm and balmy summers, and cool and pleasant winters. Both the seasons are almost alike with the only difference being humidity and rainfall, or the lack thereof.

With such comfortable weather conditions one can indulge in a plethora of fun adventure activities that are available here. You can see the underwater world by going for snorkeling, scuba-diving, sea walk, dolphin watching etc., or conquer the rugged and untamed terrains with skydiving, wildlife safaris, mountain-climbing, treks.

Things to do

Black River Gorges National Park

Witness the staggering beauty of nature and the diversity of flora and fauna,. It is the largest national park in Mauritius and is divided into two sides, a drier lowland and a humid upland.

The majesty of this national park will leave you completely breathless as it is rich in biodiversity and houses rare species of plants, birds, and animals. Large animals such as rusa deer, wild pigs, and Mauritian flying fox can be spotted freely roaming in the park. You can explore breathtaking hiking trails, enjoy a picnic in the rainforest, admire rare species of flowering plants and native birds and cool off under waterfalls.

Canyoning at Tamarind Falls

If you are looking for more adrenalin and thrill you shouldn't miss the chance to experience Canyoning at Tamarind falls. Experience breath-taking views at the Tamarind falls over the west coast. It has approximately 11 waterfalls, deep ponds and jumps too which makes the experience unforgettable. Don't miss the chance to see Le Morne which is extremely spectacular. Even Trou Aux Biches is considered appropriate for canyoning.

Chamarel Coloured Earth

The seven coloured earth in Chamarel is one geographical phenomenon that can only be seen in Mauritius. A trip to the vast and colorful dunes is among the unique things to do in Mauritius. The origins of the colorful soil is volcanic and there is no explanation behind the colourful sand dunes.

Also, called the Terres de 7 Couleurs, the best time to visit and enjoy the vibrant shades of - blue, red, brown, purple, green, yellow and violet is during the early morning. There is also a souvenir shop from where you can get samples of the sand and other merchandise.

Le Morne Brabant

Le Morne Brabant is a peninsular island on the south-western tip of the country. It is a declared UNESCO site known for its 556 meters high monoliths, green-blue lagoons, sandy beaches and scattering of palm trees. Apart from the island's splendor, it is also a prolific place to partake in activities. The Morne Brabant is a magnanimous mountain with steep slopes and rough routes which can be exciting for adventure lovers and professional hikers/trekkers. The overall activity is difficult and would require some prior experience and preparation before you can savour views from the Summit.

Ile Aux Cerfs Tour by Speedboat

Ile aux Cerfs is one of the best coasts of Mauritius. Take this Ile aux Cerfs tour by speedboat and explore the place in the best way possible. The package included various water activities, lunch and also a visit to the Grand River South East Waterfalls.

Flic En Flac Beach

Flic en Flac was initially a small fishing village in the Western region. Now, it has a picture-postcard beach, which is among the topmost tourist sites in Mauritius that attracts people with the soft white-sand, azure sea, tropical vegetation, serene atmosphere and a plethora of activities like scuba-diving, sailing, cruising, and others. You can come here for some leisurely time, to try out local delicacies and much more.

Casela Park

Feel the sense of excitement and adrenaline rush as you walk with the king of the jungle. Walking with the lion will give you an amazing opportunity to see the wild side of the jungle. It is truly an amazing experience that shouldn't be missed. Winter months are considered to be the best season to have a friendly walk with the lions. It is advised not to wear bright color clothes and moreover the trained professional also advises you to wear trousers than shorts.
