Rishikesh is the most beautiful blend of spiritual and adrenaline pumping experiences. With Whitewater Rafting industry growing and a number of camping and cafe spots springing up, Rishikesh has grown immensely as a favourite, catering to people with different needs

Mussoorie

With a backdrop of Shivalik range of Himalayas and doon valley, Mussoorie, also known as Queen of The Hills, stands at an altitude of 7000 feet above sea level and has a cool, pleasant climate throughout the year. Once the British summer capital, Mussoorie is a popular getaway for honeymooners and families.

The adjoining little hill station of Landour, along with Mussoorie, Barlowganj and Jharipani together form the greater Mussoorie. Affording a mind-stirring view of the snow-dusted Himalayas, Mussoorie beckons trekkers, climbers and adventure sports enthusiasts.

New Tehri

One of the most magical places, New Tehri is the only planned city in Uttarakhand. This beautiful place boasts of the biggest and highest dam in India i.e. Tehri Dam. One of the biggest hydro electrical projects, this dam is known to draw water from two major rivers – Bhagirathi and Bhilangana. Deriving its name from the word ‘Trihari’, this city also offers a range of activities like trekking, river rafting, and rock climbing.

Kanatal

Kanatal, which is one of the most tranquil places to visit in Uttarakhand, is a perfect spot for planning a refreshing getaway. Located on the Chamba-Mussoorie road, this serene place boasts of splendid vistas and breathtaking sceneries, apart from offering a range of adrenaline pumping activities, thereby making it a perfect spot for both nature enthusiasts and adventure lovers.

Dhanaulti

Located in close proximity to Mussoorie, Dhanaulti is one of the most beautiful and peaceful places to visit in Uttarakhand. This scenic tourist place is a must-visit for all those who are looking forward to a tranquil weekend getaway. Situated in the midst of lofty peaks and dotted with lush green trees, this small town ensures an invigorating experience. Some of the must-visit places in Dhanaulti are eco parks, Dashavatar Temple and Deogarh Fort

Mussoorie

Mussoorie is yet another destination which has been on the list of travellers since a very long time. Located in close proximity to Dehradun, this beautiful hill station is one of the most amazing places to visit in Uttarakhand. Located in the midst of Garhwal Himalayan ranges, Mussoorie enjoys a wonderful weather all the year round. Some of the must-visit places in Mussoorie are Kempty Falls, Lal Tibba and The Mall. Home to different hills, lakes, and temples, this place derives its name from a shrub known as Mansoor, which is found here in large quantities.

Landour

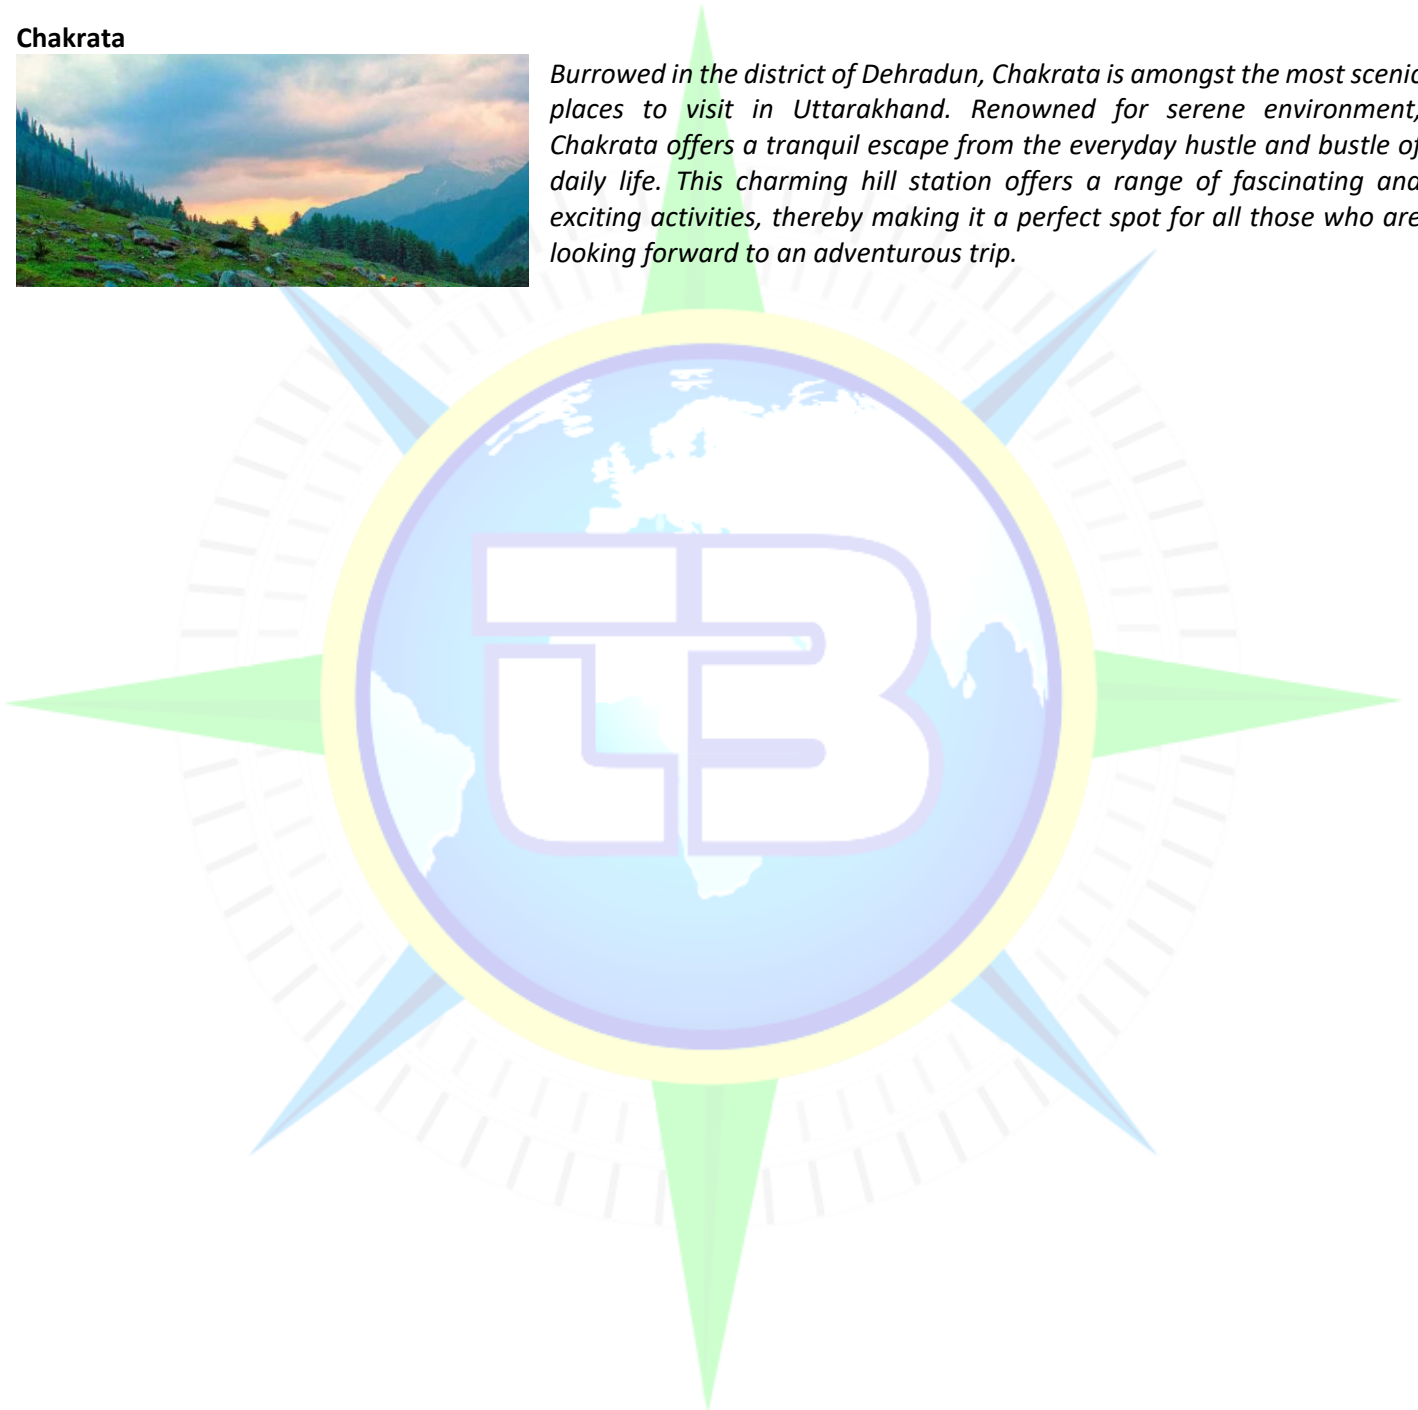

Landour is undoubtedly amongst the most serene places to see in Uttarakhand. Home to one of India's renowned author, Ruskin Bond, this beautiful town is located in close proximity to Dehradun. This is amongst those places which have not been touched by commercialization and continues to be a place where one can unwind in serenity. Boasting of breathtaking views and eye-catching landscapes, one can look forward to an absolute surreal experience in Landour. This place is also renowned for homemade jams as well as delectable cheese.

Chakrata

Burrowed in the district of Dehradun, Chakrata is amongst the most scenic places to visit in Uttarakhand. Renowned for serene environment, Chakrata offers a tranquil escape from the everyday hustle and bustle of daily life. This charming hill station offers a range of fascinating and exciting activities, thereby making it a perfect spot for all those who are looking forward to an adventurous trip.

DETAIL ITINERARY

DAY 1

TRANSFER DELHI TO MUSSOORIE

OVERNIGHT : MUSOORIE

As you arrive at the Delhi airport, our representative will receive you and assists while you take a transfer to your first destination, Mussoorie.

Stay overnight at the hotel in Mussoorie.

Popularly known as the Queen of Hills, Mussoorie is a popular hill station of North India. Mussoorie is the place you should be heading to. Nestled amidst the foothills of the Garhwal Himalayan ranges, Mussoorie, also known as Queen of The Hills, stands at an altitude of 7000 feet above sea level, and has a cool, pleasant climate throughout the year.

This beautiful hill station is the perfect retreat from the sweltering weather of the plains, and the fact that it was a very popular holiday destination during the British era can be seen from the multitude of British remnants engulfing the city, such as the archaic architecture of the hotels and churches dotting the entire terrain.

DAY 2

MUSOORIE SIGHTSEEING

OVERNIGHT : MUSOORIE

Morning after breakfast proceeds to explore local tourist attractions. Mussoorie Lake, Lal Tibba, Kempty Falls are great attractions of Mussoorie.

Mussoorie Lake It is a man-made lake which was developed by City Board and the Mussoorie-Dehradun Developmental Authority. The lake is placed at a scenic location about 6 km before Mussoorie on the Dehradun-Mussoorie Road. One can get down at Dhobi Ghat from where the lake is just at a walking distance. Surroundings of the lake include the mesmerizing views of Doon Valley and the verdant hills of Mussoorie. There are pedalled boats to enjoy the calmness of the lovely lake.

It is a perfect picnic spot for family and couples to spend fun and quality time. Monsoon is the best time to visit the as the lake looks most beautiful during that time of the year.

There is a nominal entry fees and the lake is open all days of the year. Shops offering refreshments are there to provide refreshments to the visitors.

Lal Tibba: is located on the top of Depot Hill in Landour, approximately 6 kilometres from Mussoorie. Being the highest point in the area, Lal Tibba is one of the most stunning viewpoints in the region. The name literally translates to 'red hill'. Rising to a height of 2,275 meters (7,164 feet), Lal Tibba is the picture-perfect place to fulfil your sightseeing desires. The telescopes installed here are priceless, and aid in cherishing the beautiful unfettering panoramas of the Nilkantha peak (6,596 meters) in Badrinath, Kedarnath peak (6,940 meters), Banderpoonch range of three peaks with the highest rising to 6,316 meters can all be viewed on a cloudless day.

Kempty Falls: Located on the way between Dehradun-Mussoorie roads, in the Ram Gaon area of Tehri Garhwal, Kempty Falls is a beautiful cascade of water that falls to the ground from a mighty altitude of 40 feet. Surrounded by high mountain cliffs, Kempty Falls is nestled at an altitude of around 4500 ft above the sea level. This place was developed as a picnic destination by John Mekinian owing to its captivating surroundings and scenic beauty. One of the most renowned waterfalls in Uttarakhand, Kempty Falls offers a mesmerizing panoramic view as the water falls from the mountains

Evening back to hotel Overnight stay.

DAY 3

TRANSFER MUSSOORIE TO RISHIKESH (75km , 2Hrs)

OVERNIGHT : RISHIKESH

Morning after breakfast, check out from hotel and proceed for Rishikesh. Situated along the convergence of Ganga and Chandrabhaga, Rishikesh on the foothills of Himalayas is the hub of many ancient temples, popular cafes, yoga ashrams and adventure sports. Rishikesh is the most beautiful blend of spiritual and adrenaline pumping experiences. With Whitewater Rafting industry growing and a number of camping and cafe spots springing up, Rishikesh has grown immensely as a favourite, catering to people with different needs.

On the way visit famous Mansa Devi by cable car in Haridwar. Mansa Devi Temple is one of the most revered temple of Goddess Mansa Devi located at Bilwa Parvat near Haridwar. This temple is a holy place to worship Goddess Mansa, who is believed to be a form of Shakti, emerged from the mind of great Sage Kashyap. Mansa Devi temple is a famous Siddhpeeth and offers panoramic views of Haridwar city. Mansa Devi Temple can be reached in two ways: on foot or by cable car. Walking requires a one and a half kilometer hike uphill. The track is sealed but the exertion can be draining during the hot months. Hence, many people prefer to take the cable car (also referred to as a ropeway) up, and walk down.

Later visit other important temples of Haridwar such as Daksh Temple, Maya Devi Temple, Pawan Dham & Parad Shivling. Transfer to Rishikesh. Check in to hotel.

Overnight at Rishikesh

DAY 4

RISHIKESH SIGHTSEEING

OVERNIGHT : RISHIKESH

In the morning post breakfast - head out to enjoy a day's excursion to Rishikesh. Visit Lakshman Jhula, Neelkanth Mahadev, Gita Bhawan, Bharat Mandir, Trambakeshwar Temple,.

Lakshman Jhula : The Lakshman Jhula is a famous hanging bridge across the river Ganga that connects two villages, Tapovan in the Tehri Garhwal district and Jonk in the Pauri Garhwal district. Located 5 kilometres to the northeast of the town Rishikesh in the Indian state of Uttarakhand, the entire bridge is made up of iron, is 450 feet long and is situated at the height of 70 feet from the river. The Lakshman Jhula is extremely well known amongst tourists because of the rich mythological associations that are connected with the bridge. It is widely believed that Lord Lakshman, the younger brother of Lord Rama, had crossed the river Ganga at this same site, where the bridge now majestically stands for all to see.

Neelkanth Mahadev Temple is dedicated to Shiva as Neelkanth is his another name. This temple is located around 7km from Swarg Ashram and the route is a 3 hour long walk along a forest path. Another way to reach here is via Lakshman Jhula. A taxi might also take you there for a reasonable price. Pilgrims offer water from Ganga to this temple.

Gita Bhawan: Also popularly known as the Guru Shri Ram Sukh Daasji, the Geeta Bhawan is a vast and spacious complex that is located on the banks of the river Ganga in Swargashram in Rishikesh, at the foothills of the mighty Himalayas. The Ashram is renowned as an important institution that preserves Hindu literature since it houses the Gita, which symbolizes the Hindu Vedas and epics. The Geeta Bhawan is visited by a large number of people each year, who flock to here to take a dip in the holy waters of the Ganges, listen to the discourses and meditate.

Bharat Mandir : Founded by Adiguru Shankaracharya in 12th century, the shrine houses Lord Vishnu carved out of a single piece of Saligram. The inner canopy of the temple contains Shree Yantra. The architecture and interiors of the temple has been detailed in the ancient record of Kearkhand. The present structure was reconstructed on the ruins of the original temple destroyed by Tamur. Excavations have yielded many old statues, ancient pots and coins from this site

Evening you can relax or visit Ganga Aarti at Parmarth Niketan. Ganga arti in Rishikesh is unlike any other arti ritual held to worship the holy Ganges. These artis are usually attended by a number of devotees and tourists. The rituals are authentic and provide a highly soulful and peaceful experience. Those seeking a divine escape are often drawn to these rituals held in Rishikesh on the banks of River Ganga.

Overnight stay at Rishikesh.

DAY 7

TRANSFER JIM CORBETT NATIONAL PARK TO NAINITAL (66km , 2Hrs)

OVERNIGHT: NAINITAL

After breakfast checkout and proceed for Nainital. Nainital is a charming hill station that sits prettily at the green foothills of the Kumaon ranges in the Himalayas. Located at an elevation of around 1938 metres, the epicentre of the town's popularity and beauty lies within the gorgeous Naini Lake, after which the town is named. Founded by the British due to its resemblance to the Cumbrian Lake district, Nainital brims with elegant colonial structures that amplify the beauty of this place

On arrival checkin to hotel and proceed to explore Nainital. Nestled amidst the township of Nainital, Naini Lake (short for Nainital Lake) is a beautiful natural fresh body lake. The lake is in crescent or kidney shape and is one of the most famous lakes of the Kumaon region. Bounded by Naini Peak on North West, Tiffin Point on the South West and snow-capped peaks on the north, the Nainital Lake offers a breathtaking view, especially during early morning and sunset.

The mesmerizing lake is most famous for its wonderful scenic beauty which is a hotspot for family picnics. Boating, long evening walks and endearing interactions with ducks are some of the things that are a must do whilst visiting this glittering lake. You can also seek the blessings of Goddess Naina Devi at the Naina Devi temple which is also situated near the Naini Lake.

Evening spend at Mall Road. It runs parallel to the Naini Lake, connecting the two ends of the hill town (Mallital and Tallital), is the prime shopping, food and cultural centre of the wonder that is Nainital. Whether it is digging into some luscious food or shopping for the cutest local woollens that are to be found, Mall Road is your go-to for it all.

DAY 8

NAINITAL TO RANIKHET TO NAINITAL

OVERNIGHT: NAINITAL

After breakfast start excursion to Ranikhet. Ranikhet is a place related with the legends of Himalayas. Historical accounts tell us the Queen Padmini of Kumaon was enchanted by this tiny hill paradise. King Sudhardev obliged her, by building a palace here for the queen and named the place Ranikhet (the queen's fields).

No trace of the palace can be found today, but the place remained the same: captivating, abounding with flowers, trees and green meadows in the midst of heavenly Himalayan surroundings. Lost into oblivion for long, the picturesque hill station was rediscovered by the British. They bought the land from the native villagers and build it into a summer resort apart from establishing an army recruitment centre. Ranikhet still remains the head quarters of the gallant Kumaon Regiment. Situated at a height of 1,829 meters, with an area of 21.76 sq. km Ranikhet has too much to present to the visitors – a healthy climate, tall coniferous trees, vast green meadows, tranquil surroundings, perfect peace and warm, open-hearted people. Every season has its own irresistible charm. This is what makes Ranikhet an all-season destination. Ranikhet also boasts of one of the best hill golf greens (9 holes) in the country. Return to Nainital for an overnight stay at the hotel.
